

In its fourth edition the Brazilian Venture Capital Conference has grown and become the most important event for anyone looking for more information on venture capital investments in Brazil. Last year the event gathered more than 200 people for a full day of discussions and networking.

This year the agenda will highlight important events in Brazil's VC scenario such as Netshoe's IPO and 99Taxis' successful fundraising round. Come join us.

Registration	Speakers
--------------	----------

Agenda

08h30	Registration
09h00	Welcome Remarks
09h05	Opening Keynote
09h40	The VC scenario in Brazil: Deal flow and returns A group of active investors from different regions in Brazil will share their views and experiences on deal flow, exit strategies and returns in this post-recession scenario. They will share lessons learned and a forecast of the future as they see it of the Brazilian venture capital industry.
10h30	Coffee break
11h00	How are GPs investing in impact? Around the world the number and volume of impact investments have grown. New fund managers are entering the impact field, traditional venture capital investors are adopting impact strategies and programs, groups doing impact for a while are consolidating themselves in the segment. The session will offer perspectives on different ways to operate in impact and will look to answer questions that keep being raised during this moment of transition.
11h50	Brazilian startups in the global arena: 99 and its international fundraising 2017 began well for 99. Before the first semester closed, the company managed to raise more than US$200 million in investments, a novelty for a Brazilian startup. The session will offer an open discussion among founder and investors on the path that a Brazilian startup must take to attract global investments.
12h40	Networking lunch
13h50	Fintech: Friend or foe of the banking sector? How have new technologies changed the rules of the game and how are banks positioning themselves to leverage out of this technological financial race?
14h40	Fomenting innovation and increasing competitiveness There are few global markets that has the size, sophistication and demand for products and services as there are in Brazil. Experts will share their view on how the country is positioned in the innovation race and what is doing to increase its competitiveness in the global stage and attract investments?
15h35	Coffee Break
16h00	Interview: Tech Companies and IPOs Netshoes
16h40	Closing Keynote
17h30	Adjournment